Some are satisfied with only playing games with regular dimensions, and some will be satisfied if they play games in 3D. Therefore, Logitech presents a guaranteed product to give you satisfaction in playing games with real sensations. The work I mean is a joystick intended for Flight Simulator called Logitech Extreme 3D Pro. Logitech Extreme 3D Pro Joystick For those who like to play Flight Simulator, a joystick will give you a different experience than using a keyboard/mouse. Even for Flight Simulator mania, a joystick is a must. A reliable joystick will make your game feel more real and fun. With Logitech Extreme 3D Pro, you'll find expectations that match satisfaction with every move. Equipped with 12 programmable buttons, you can customize your joystick to suit your liking. If you want to lower the landing gear, all you have to do is press the button on your joystick. Everything is available from this joystick to see the view to the left, right, and above. Also, by using software, you can customize your joystick. This software also recognizes many Flight Simulator games on your PC and can save specific software settings. To get it, you can download it below in the Logitech Extreme software section that I have provided. Amazing Joystick with Full Features Also, various experiments have shown that instinct and reaction speed are important aspects of flying an airplane. To aid the mastery of pilots, the Logitech Extreme 3D Pro Joystick is specially designed with a custom steering handle that is small in size but will provide control with a natural experience. The rudder built into Logitech Extreme 3D Pro adapts to the shape of your hand, and you can use it to fly planes, comfortably shoot down enemy planes even when you are playing for extended periods. Also Read: Logitech G400 Software Update, Driver, Manual, and ReviewAt the top of this controller's steering wheel is an 8-way hat switch, which specially designed for flight simulation, and you can use it to change your point of view or change weapons easily and quickly. Then, there is also a trigger that you can hit very soon to shower your opponents with bullets and knock them down. You don't have to worry about controller being slippery when you maneuver because Extreme 3D Pro is equipped with a massive base to anticipate the problem very well. If you are interested in enjoying the extraordinary sensation of this joystick, you can order it directly on the official Logitech website. For the price, the Logitech Extreme 3D Pro is priced at around $ 39.
